THE MAILS RIFLED

To Intercept Caleb Power's Letters to Berry Howard.

Hendrick Pays Free Silver to State Committee—Carnegie's Latest Gift.

SUICIDE IN THE PHILIPPINES

RIFLING OF MAILS.

Frankfort, Ky., April 24—Quite a sensation has been created here by the investigation of the government authorities of the rifling of the mails to secure letters passing between Caleb Powers and Berry Howard. Some of the politicians have tried to make political capital of the visit of government officers by claiming that they were here investigating the collection of the war claim.

HENDRICK PAYS THE BALANCE.

Frankfort, April 24—Colonel John K. Hendrick at noon today put up the balance on his entrance fee of $1,250, Colonel John Melan paying Chairman Young 416 silver dollars.

CARNEGIE'S LATEST GIFT.

New York, April 24—The last act of philanthropy performed by Andrew Carnegie is the endowment of Tuskegee institute, the colored school presided over by Booker Washington, with $600,000. Mr. Carnegie in his letter stated that he regards Booker Washington as one of the greatest men of his age and one engaged in one of the best and noblest work, and a work that is based on the right idea—the education of the negro as a settlement of the race question. The only conditions on which the money is given is that Booker Washington and family shall be insured from pecuniary want during their lifetime.

ARMY OFFICERS KILL THEMSELVES.

Washington, April 24—It is believed that life in the Philippines is conducive to suicide, as ten officers to say nothing of the scores of privates have committed suicide there since our army began its occupation of the islands. Lieutenant-Colonel Spole is the last. It is claimed that homesickness, sleeping on the tropical ground, exposure and poor food cause temporary insanity, which results in suicide.

MAY GO TO VERSAILLES.

Paris, April 24—It is rumored here that General Horace Porter, just granted a 60 days leave of absence, will not return to France, but will be succeeded by Senator Chauncey Depew as ambassador to France. General Porter has never felt at home here and since the death of his wife it is believed he will soon return to the United States.

WANT MANCHURIA.

Peking, April 24—Russia has demanded of China the signing of an agreement practically ceding her the sovereignty of Manchuria, and excluding all other nations. It is claimed that no further steps towards evacuation will be taken until the agreement is signed.

MAY HAVE A REPUBLIC.

Madrid, April 24—It is believed that Republicanism is developing so rapidly in Spain that it will carry at the next election, and that Alfonso will be deposed and a president chosen in his place. The agrarians have allied themselves with the Republicans.

DEFENSE RESTS.

Frankfort, April 24—The defense today rested in the Jim Howard case, and the state introduced evidence in rebuttal of a number of witnesses, defending the character of Stubblefield.

BURNED VEIL OFF

Mrs. F. Fields Painfully Burned While After Honey.

Mr. Alex Love Falls On a Knife and Receives a Cut.

A FEW MINOR ACCIDENTS

Mrs. F. Fields, wife of the foreman of the local I. C. wrecking crew, of 432 South Tenth street, narrowly escaped being horribly burned yesterday afternoon late while trying to secure honey from a bee hive in the field of Mr. Roy Nelson, near Tyler, Ky., several miles out on the Benton road. Mrs. Fields had the usual veil over her head to prevent the bees from stinging her, and had a pan of hot ashes in her hand to smoke the bees out. As she approached the hive to secure the honey a puff of wind fanned the ashes into flames and ignited her veil. In an instant her head was enveloped in a mass of flames and her hat and a portion of her hair burned before she could be aided. A field-hand ran to her and snatched the burning goods off her head and extinguished her dress, which had ignited. One side of Mrs. Fields' face was badly burned, but the injury is not serious.

Mr. Alex Love was cut in the right leg yesterday afternoon late while scuffling with several companions. One had an open knife and when they fell the knife was accidentally thrust

THE NEW MACHINERY A FACTORY CLOSES

Will be Ordered Soon by the Illinois Central.

Shops Will Not be Enlarged if Machinery Can be Installed Without It.

MACHINES WILL COST $55,000

The ground plans for the addition of new machinery in the local Illinois Central machine shops, are being made this week and will be completed by the first of next week.

Yesterday machinists were put to work measuring the floor and making a ground drawing of the entire shop. After this has been finished the drawing will be turned over to the master mechanic who will confer with other officials in arranging for the placing of the new machines.

Several months ago plans for an addition to the shop were begun but have not been finished as it is thought the new machinery can be put in without an addition to the building. Several machines will be changed and a rearrangement made in order to secure more room. The cost of the machinery is estimated at about $55,000. This will necessitate the employment of more machinists and it is thought the machinery will be here within the next three months or probably sooner. Last week a new air compressor was received here, the first of the new machinery ordered. This machine was secured as a stronger air plant was necessary to the addition of more machinery.

Rheumatism

"THE PAIN KING."

Those who have ever felt its keen, cutting pains, or witnessed the intense suffering of others, know that Rheumatism is torture, and that it is rightly called "The King of Pain."

All do not suffer alike. Some are suddenly seized with the most excruciating pains, and it seems every muscle and joint in the body was being torn asunder. Others feel only occasional slight pains for weeks or months, when a sudden change in the weather or exposure to damp, chilly winds or night air brings on a fierce attack, lasting for days perhaps, and leaving the patient with a weakened constitution or crippled and deformed for all time.

An acid, polluted condition of the blood is the cause of every form and variety of Rheumatism, Muscular, Articular, Acute, Chronic, Inflammatory and Sciatic, and the blood must be purged and purified before there is an end to your aches and pains. External applications, the use of liniments and plasters, do much toward temporary relief, but such treatment does not reach the real cause or cleanse the diseased blood; but S. S. S., the greatest of all blood purifiers and tonics, does cure Rheumatism by antidoting and neutralizing the poisonous acids and building up the weak and sluggish blood. It is safe and reliable in all forms of Rheumatism. It makes the old acid blood rich, and the pain-tortured muscles and joints are relieved, the shattered nerves are made strong, and the entire system is invigorated and toned up by the use of this great vegetable remedy.

If you have Rheumatism, write us, and our physicians will furnish without charge any information desired, and we will mail free our book on Rheumatism.

WATER COMPANY WINS.

BEATS THE CITY OF HARRODSBURG IN APPELLATE COURT.

Harrodsburg, Ky., April 24—The court of appeals has handed down an opinion reversing the judgment of the Mercer circuit court in the consolidated cases of the Harrodsburg Water company vs the city of Harrodsburg, giving the Harrodsburg Water company a judgment against the city for $10,000. The water company held a contract with the city for furnishing it water for domestic and public purposes. The company sued the city for water furnished, amounting to about $10,000, and the city claimed that the contract under which the company claimed was annulled. The circuit court gave judgment for the $10,000 against the city, and also gave the city a judgment annulling the contract, and the court of appeals reverses both judgments and orders the cases remanded for a new trial.

Mayor Yeiser acted as clerk in the absence of Clerk Patterson who was sent to Frankfort in the interest of the city to go before the board of equalization.

Contractor E. C. Terrell was granted until June 1 to complete improvements on West Harrison and Madison streets.

The matter of bids on railroad bonds was referred to the mayor and joint finance committee. All bids were rejected.

A communication from Roberts & Co. relative to the damage suit on the bond matter was read. It offered a compromise of $4,000 rather than go into the courts. This proposition was referred to the mayor and joint finance committee.

A report from Acting Solicitor Charles K. Wheeler, stating that the city was not liable in any form for the attorney fees in the suit brought by Marshal Crow, was read and filed.

The report of the milk and meat inspector for March was received.

The joint finance committee reported on the matter of a settlement with Marshal Crow relative to fees collected during the time James Collins was acting as chief of police, and recommended that the matter be taken to the courts for settlement. Crow placed a bill in asking for $407, for the time he was ousted. His attorney was present and stated that he would agree on a compromise of $300. The total amount collected for costs during the time Crow was out is $355. The matter was referred to a committee.

Mayor Yeiser read an opinion from Attorneys Elcomfield and Orice on the legality of the Register's appointment to the office of city printer by Prosecuting Attorney Jesse Gilbert. The opinion sustained the legality of the appointment. The opinion was received and filed.

Ordinance fixing salary of the city solicitor at $900 per annum; second reading given.

In the ordinance fixing the salary of city clerk at $1,300 per annum with a $30,000 bond, action was deferred on account of the bond, Alderman Singleton thinking the bond too great, and many good men being unable to give such a large bond and thereby being shut out of a possible candidacy.

Ordinance fixing city assessor's salary at $900 per annum with a $2,000 bond and his assistants salary at $200 per annum, was referred.

DAILY THOUGHT.

"Think of the ills from which you are exempt, and it will aid you to bear patiently those which you may now suffer."

THE WEATHER.

Showers and warmer tonight. Saturday showers and cooler in the afternoon.

Mr. Andrew Carnegie, in donating six hundred thousand dollars to Booker Washington's school, writes a letter that should be read by everybody. He says the best and only way of solving the race problem is by educating the negro, not by persecution and abuse.

Hopkinsville seems to need a little activity similar to that recently begun in Paducah with a view to doing away with street obstructions. A merchant has just sued the city for $2,000 damages because he collided with a pile of stone left without a danger signal.

Spain is in danger of becoming a republic, according to the statements in the big papers. The plan is for the Republicans to carry the next election and depose King Alfonso, appointing a president in his stead. The socialists have joined the Republicans in the movement.

Perhaps excited by the attention Missouri is attracting by the peculiarities of her legislation, the Illinois legislature yesterday converted itself into a howling mob of hoodlums and proceeded to run things without an organization. The Democrats significantly take this as a return to Democratic rule.

Some of the Democratic papers of Kentucky are making a desperate effort to turn the tide in favor of Colonel Hendrick, some are trying to make it appear that nothing on earth can defeat Beckham, while a few that see the handwriting are urging the Democrats to get together or they will certainly get beaten in November, which is perhaps the only thing certain that you see in the Democratic papers these days.

Kentucky has established a precedent for the rest of the world to laugh over. A Kentucky county judge has just decided that a man who was killed by a neighbor committed suicide by going to his slayer's house with a gun looking for trouble, and getting killed. The man who did the shooting was fully exonerated. It is needless now to call attention to the danger of hunting for trouble in Kentucky.

Mr. Nathan Stubblefield, a Calloway county man who has achieved considerable notoriety as an inventor of electrical telephones that need no wires, perpetual motion machines, and other devices in keeping with modern times, announces that in a short time he will publish a report of what he has accomplished in his several years experiments. It is hoped that he will. About all that he has demonstrated so far is that he is pretty good at working the newspapers.

Attorney Folk, of St. Louis, has done fine work in exposing hoodlums, but he has no doubt committed political suicide by it. The people may appreciate his efforts, but the politicians do not, and the politicians run things these days. The first time he bobs up for office, the ring will knife him and he will never get a nomination, and is doubtless now hiding his last office.

He has made things warm for the grafters and hoodlums, but they and their friends will make it warm for him the next time he offers for office, which will probably be soon, as his term shortly expires. This is a state of affairs not to be boasted of, but unfortunately true.

Another kick was raised last night in the council about the filth and dust that are swept out of the business houses every morning into the faces of citizens who have to pass on their way to work or market. The same complaint has been registered many times before, yet nothing has ever been done. It was ordered several weeks ago that the police enforce the law, but they have failed to do it, and the mayor announced last night that he would give orders to have the ordinance enforced. The police commissioners did good work in ordering street obstructions removed, and could confer a favor equally as acceptable on the public by ordering the enforcement of the law prohibiting the daily house cleaning on Broadway.

It is doubtless true that Mayfield contributes substantially to the criminal element of Paducah, furnishes a goodly portion of the malefactors who have their trials semi-annually before the federal court here, and sends us a very undesirable lot of "pistol toters" and "booze fighters" frequently, but to boast of it is a more than we counted on. Yesterday's Mirror says: "Mayfield is a tolerable straight, moral town; but it will be a better town in the fullness of time. One reason, mayhap, why the city creates an unfavorable impression in the estimation of some critics is based on the cause that our municipal authorities won't let a bad egg float here at all—just as soon as they begin their calling they are railroaded off to Eddyville or Paducah—Mayfield's dumping grounds for all such are not desirable—a custom other places less appreciative of legitimate behavior neglect to conform to. In other words, brethren, abroad, be informed that every day is wash day in Mayfield except Sunday, and even then, we keep the water hot under the pot."

The prosecution in the Howard case seems to allow anything introduced that will go against the defendant, but nothing that will be in his favor if it can be helped. An effort was made yesterday to prove Yontsey's motive in "confessing" by introducing his wife to prove what he had told her, but the prosecution objected and Judge Cantrill of course sustained the objection. Yet the witness Cecil was allowed to tell a number of things that several persons not on trial or before the court were alleged to have said when it could not have possibly had any bearing in the Howard trial, except to prejudice the jury against any man who is a Republican. It seems very plain, as the Howard trial progresses, that Yontsey was influenced by a hope of favor at the hands of the political persecutors at Frankfort. If the fair and able Judge Cantrill would permit it, it could be shown that he was treated like a brute at the penitentiary until he agreed to "confess" and since then he has had a dead easy time. It could have been proven by his wife how differently he had been treated according to his statements to her, before and after his determination to "confess," but the court wouldn't allow it. It would show up the commonwealth's methods too plainly.

IN THE COURTS

TOMORROW THE REGULAR TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT ENDS.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Tomorrow the regular April term of circuit court will end here and but few convictions have been made. Up to date not over ten convictions have been made and both murder cases, against Ike Stevenson and Charles Gordon, have been continued, as have all misdemeanor cases.

The case against Henry Wilson, white, for obtaining money by false pretenses was called late yesterday afternoon. Wilson was arrested for drunkenness early in the morning and released by the police on account of his old age. He remarked, it is claimed, as he left the city hall that he wanted a drink badly and guessed he would have to touch up some wagon yard. The charge preferred against him is for stealing a turkey from a wagon in Mason Stanley's wagon yard and selling it to a Greek restaurant keeper for 35 cents.

The jury returned a verdict for guilty and sentenced the prisoner to one year in the penitentiary.

The case against Kane Lucas, colored, for false swearing, was on trial at press time.

Willis Marshall was granted a divorce from Fannie Marshall.

In the friendly suit of W. E. Cave against Belle Cave and others a judgment for sale was filed.

In the case of Hannah and Louise Dunnoy, for bawdy house, the motion for a new trial was overruled and the case appealed.

The motion for a new trial in the Elmer E. Davis case was continued and set for the twentieth day of the next April term of court, beginning with next Monday.

Willis Roberts, the fourteen year old boy who cut Shep Green several months ago on the wharf, was yesterday afternoon late given one year in the penitentiary. The jury in its first verdict did not fix the punishment, but simply found the defendant guilty. The court sent it back and gave it ten minutes in which to fix the punishment, and it was fixed at one year. Roberts, it seems, cut young Green without provocation, and the wound came near proving fatal. He has for several years been a great annoyance to the police, and had often been warned by Judge Sanders to mend his ways, but as he did not heed good advice he will now have to go to the penitentiary.

WITH THE SICK.

Mr. Roll Herring is reported worse today.

Mrs. Lloyd Baker has about recovered from a several days' illness.

Mr. Lee Wolverington of Clay street is ill.

Miss May Bleich is ill, her many friends will regret to learn.

Mrs. McElroy, mother of Mrs. Ell Guthrie, is ill from jaundice.

The yacht is double-masted, has one funnel, measures eighteen feet beam, ninety feet on the water line, and draws nine feet, with a displacement of eighty tons gross.

ONE MEMBER INITIATED—The Elks held their regular meeting last night, and transacted regular business. There was one initiation, the first for some little time, Mr. Clarence Martin, the tobaccoist, being the candidate.

A TROLLEY BROKE.

The trolley wire on the Paducah City Railway line broke in two at the Palmer house on Broadway today about 11 o'clock and stopped traffic over that portion of the line for more than an hour. Linemen were secured and under the direction of Electrician Dan Simon soldered the wire together again. No one was injured by the accident.

HAVE YOU noticed the late arrivals, those big black roaches? Move 'em out by using Kamleiter's Roach Poison.

IMPROVING RAPIDLY.

MISS FLORA MAY CLARK WILL SOON BE OUT AGAIN.

Miss Flora May Clark, who has been ill from smallpox at the Clark home at Ninth and Clay, for the past three weeks, is improving rapidly, and the quarantine will be raised in about four days.

According to local doctors, Miss Clark had the worst case of genuine smallpox seen in Paducah for ten years, but the most modern treatment has been employed, and she will not be disfigured a particle, which her many friends here will be glad to learn.

SOWING SEED for satisfaction is just what that farmer did when he raised our fine eating stock of potatoes. They're not the soft and sprouty kind, but sound and good, cook up white and mealy. 15c peck at Kamleiter's.

WILL GET REWARD.

POLICE HERE HAVE GOOD LUCK CONVICTING LOG THIEVES.

The police of Paducah have always been very fortunate in convicting thieves who steal saw-logs from the local mills. In past years they have almost invariably captured all thieves who steal logs, and secured their conviction.

The last one convicted was Charles Ashley, caught in Missouri and brought back. He was given one year, and the police will receive the reward of $10, offered by nearly all the mills of Paducah, for the conviction of a log thief.

WE OFFER YOU delicious sweetness in every gallon bucket of our extra fancy Rock Candy Drip. You can try them before buying. Sale price Saturday 48c bucket. Kamleiter's.

MARSHALL COUNTY CHURCH TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY OF A MEMBER.

A somewhat novel celebration will take place at Oakland Cumberland Presbyterian church near Sharpe, Marshall county, Sunday next. It will be the anniversary of the birth of perhaps the church's oldest member, Mr. Ephraim Rudolph, who will on that day be 95 years old. He has resided in that county all his life, and has numerous descendants, many of them residing in this county, one being Mr. F. G. Rudolph, of Paducah, the former councilman.

The celebration will consist of a basket picnic on the church grounds, and the relatives alone will make a large crowd, while the indications are that there will be scores of people for miles around in attendance with their dinner baskets.

ACOME BRAND lemon clings are as fine a high grade peach as was ever put in tin. Extra heavy syrup. A cut can open for your inspection. These goods usually retail at 30c. Our sale price tomorrow 20c. Kamleiter's.

REQUISITION PAPERS.

KID DOVEY TO BE BROUGHT TO THE CITY SOON.

Marshal Crow today received requisition papers for Kid Dovey, the negro desperado who was with Louis Buford for quite a while and who is wanted on several charges here. He is under arrest at Gulfport, Miss., and Captain Henry Bailey will leave probably tomorrow for him, returning Sunday or Monday.

DAILY MARKET LETTER.

Wall Street, April 24—There was general disappointment over the market's action today as well as yesterday. Predictions had been sent broadcast for some time past that a big bull market was probable during the opening day of the new quarters of the New York stock exchange. On account of Great Britain's complications London came much lower for American securities, being mostly from one-half to one and one-half below parity.
This with heavy realizing sales caused a very weak opening in a great many issues, but the recovery was quite general and the closing figures, while somewhat irregular, were practically unchanged from last figures yesterday.
The failure of the bank of England to reduce its rate of discount was disappointing, although it is to be noted that this favorable development is quite certain to take place in a week or so. The Bank of Bengal reduced its discount rate from 6 to 5 per cent.
The reaction today was natural, considering the rapid advance of the market last week from the low point reached April 13; on the other hand the easy money market and expected good bank statement and a general better feeling among the rank and file of Wall street is looked to cause further enhancement of prices soon.
Town Topics financial bureau gives out the following: "On weak spots we advise the purchase of stocks returning 5 per cent or more on the investment. We are bullish on Missouri Pacific, Rock Island, Frisco, Southern Pacific and Atchison. We believe Mexican Central will sell higher." Fifty roads for the second week in April show a gross increase of 16 8-10 per cent. Banks have gained from sub-treasury since Friday last $2,550,000. Trading light, sales to-noon 158,500. Call money 3 3-4 to 2 3-4.

Chicago, April 24—Wheat—Easier cables had more or less effect on wheat prices early in the day and the market sought a lower level. Shorts became bolder and took a fresh lease, but later they were doomed to disappointment inasmuch that there was a conflicting lot of crop advices and to be on the safe side the smaller short covered freely enough to cause a recovery.
The primary movement was bullish and the clearances were also more liberal today. This was somewhat offset by the Argentine visible supply showing up to be about three million bushels greater than last year, while shipments for the week were greater than previous estimates indicated. The late market was rather quiet, though there was a fairly good undertone up to the last. Another feature that has caused a great deal of short covering was a report from London to the effect that the English government had removed the duty on grain, which was put on about a year ago and amounted to about 8c a bushel. Modern Miller bullish.

Heat-Measuring Extraordinary.
The star Arcturus, the hottest of celestial bodies, gives us as much heat as a standard candle six miles away. This fact was ascertained by the radiometer, an instrument which will show the amount of heat given off from a man's face at 2,000 feet distance.

Deadly Grasp of Grip Prostrated Me.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Built Up My Shattered Nerves and Gave Me an Appetite.

Of the millions of people, who today suffer from nervous or heart weakness, a large percentage trace the cause directly to deadly LaGrippe. It is a germ disease, and makes a direct attack upon the nerves, putting an extra strain upon them at the time their vitality is at the lowest ebb. If LaGrippe has left you with a shattered nervous system, with loss of appetite, lack of energy, insomnia, frequent headaches and morbid tendencies, you should strengthen the weakened nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine. It will undo all that grip has done, bring back appetite, rest and restore the nerves to their normal activity.

"I want to write this testimonial for the benefit of those who have suffered from that dreaded disease—LaGrippe. I suffered several weeks with it, and nothing I tried seemed to benefit me in any way, shape or form (I suffered almost death) and finally my daughter recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine to me and I can truthfully say from the first day I felt better than in weeks. It gave me relief, built up my shattered nerves and gave me a splendid appetite. I cannot speak too highly of it and want to say, each and every one who has suffered from LaGrippe will find instant relief by getting a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Insist on having it and take no other. It is simply splendid. Hoping this will benefit some poor sufferer I remain,

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER

Or, The Love Story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, the King's Sister, and Happening in the Reign of His August Majesty King Henry the Eighth

Rewritten and Rendered into Modern English from Sir Edwin Cassiodor's Memoir

By EDWIN CASKODEN [CHARLES MAJOR]

Copyright, 1888 and 1901, by the Bowen-Merrill Company

We will now go back a month for the purpose of looking up the doings of a friend of ours, his grace the Duke of Buckingham.

On the morning after the fatal battle of Billingsgate the barber who had treated Brandon's wounds had been called to London to dress a bruised knee for his grace the duke. In the course of the operation an immense deal of information oozed out of the barber, one item of which was that he had the night before dressed nine wounds, great and small, for Master Brandon, the king's friend. This established the identity of the man who had rescued the girls, a fact of which Buckingham had had his suspicions all along. So Brandon's arrest followed, as I have already related to you.

I afterward learned from various sources how this nobleman began to avenge his mishap with Brandon at Mary's ball when the latter broke his sword point. First he went to Newgate and gave orders to the keeper, who was his tool, to allow no communication with the prisoner, and it was by his instructions that Brandon had been confined in the worst dungeon in London. Then he went down to Greenwich to take care of matters there, knowing that the king would learn of Brandon's arrest and probably take steps for his liberation at once.

The king had just heard of the arrest when Buckingham arrived, and the latter found he was right in his surmise that his majesty would at once demand Brandon's release.

When the duke entered the king's room, Henry called to him: "My lord, you are opportunely arrived. So good a friend of the people of London can help us greatly this morning. Our friend Brandon has been arrested for the killing of two men night before last in Billingsgate ward. I am sure there is some mistake and that the good sheriff has the wrong man, but right or wrong, we want him out and ask your good offices."

"I shall be most happy to serve your majesty and will go to London at once to see the lord mayor."

In the afternoon the duke returned and had a private audience with the king.
 "I did as your majesty requested in regard to Brandon's release," he said.
 "But on investigation I thought it best to consult you again before proceeding further. I fear there is no doubt that Brandon is the right man. It seems he was out with a couple of wenches concerning whom he got into trouble and stabbed two men in the back. It is a very aggravated case, and the citizens are much incensed about it, owing partly to the fact that such occurrences have been so frequent of late. I thought under the circumstances and in view of the fact that your majesty will soon call upon the city for a loan to make up the Lady Mary's dowry it would be wise not to antagonize them in this matter, but to allow Master Brandon to remain quietly in confinement until the loan is completed, and then we can snap our fingers at them."

"We will snap our fingers at the scurvy burghers now and have the loan, too," returned Henry angrily. "I want Brandon liberated at once, and I shall expect another report from you immediately, my lord."

Buckingham felt that his revenge had slipped through his fingers this time, but he was patient where evil was to be accomplished and could wait.
 Then it was that the council was called during the progress of which Mary and I had tried to obtain an audience of the king.

Buckingham had gone to pay his respects to the queen and on his way back had espied Mary waiting for the king in the anteroom and went to her.
 At first she was irritated at the sight of this man, whom she so despised, but a thought came to her that she might make use of him. She knew his power with the citizens and city authorities of London and also knew, or thought she knew, that a smile from her could accomplish everything with him. She had ample evidence of his infatuation, and she hoped that she could procure Brandon's liberty through Buckingham without revealing her dangerous secret.

Much to the duke's surprise, she smiled upon him and gave a cordial welcome, saying: "My lord, you have been unkind to us of late and have not shown us the light of your countenance. I am glad to see you once more. Tell me the news."

"I cannot say there is much of interest. I have learned the new dance from Casiodor, if that is news, and hope for a favor at our next ball from the fairest lady in the world."

"And quite welcome," returned Mary, complacently appropriating the title,
 "and welcome to more than one, I hope, my lord."

This graciousness would have looked suspicious to one with less vanity than Buckingham, but he saw no craft in it.
 He did see, however, that Mary did not know who had attacked her in Billingsgate, and he felt greatly relieved.

The duke smiled and smirked and was enchanted at her kindness. They walked down the corridor, talking and laughing, Mary awaiting an opportunity to put the important question without exciting suspicion. "At last it came,

 when Buckingham, half inquiringly, expressed his surprise that Mary should be found sitting at the king's door."

"I am waiting to see the king," said
 she. "Little Casiodor's friend, Brandon, has been arrested for a brawl of some sort over in London, and Sir Edwin and Lady Jane have importuned me to obtain his release, which I have promised to do. Perhaps your grace will allow me to petition you in place of carrying my request to the king.
 You are quite as powerful as his majesty in London, and I should like to ask you to obtain for Master Brandon his liberty at once. I shall hold myself infinitely obliged if your lordship will do this for me." She smiled upon him her sweetest smile and assumed an indifference that would have deceived any one but Buckingham. Upon him under the circumstances it was worse than wasted. Buckingham at once consented and said that notwithstanding the fact that he did not like Brandon, to oblige her highness he would undertake to befriend a much more disagreeable person.

"I fear," he said, "it will have to be done secretly—by conniving at his es-

"What is this?" cried Henry.

cape rather than by an order for his release. The citizens are greatly aroused over the alarming frequency of such occurrences, and as many of the offenders have lately escaped punishment by reason of court interference I fear this man Brandon will have to bear the brunt, in the London mind, of all these unpunished crimes. It will be next to impossible to liberate him except by arranging privately with the keeper for his escape. He could go down into the country and wait in seclusion until it is all blown over or until London has a new victim, and then an order can be made pardoning him, and he can return."

"Pardoning him! What are you talking of, my lord? He has done nothing to be pardoned for. He should be and shall be rewarded." Mary spoke impetuously, but caught herself and tried to remedy her blunder. "That is, if I have heard the straight of it. I have been told that the killing was done in the defense of two women." Think of this poor, unconscious girl, so full of grief and trouble, talking thus to Buckingham, who knew so much more about the affair than even she who had taken so active a part in it!

"Who told you of it?" asked the duke.

Mary saw she had made a mistake and, after hesitating for a moment, answered: "Sir Edwin Casiodor. He had it from Master Brandon, I suppose." Rather adroit this was, but equidistant from both truth and effectiveness.

"I will go at once to London and arrange for Brandon's escape," said Buckingham, preparing to leave. "But you must not divulge the fact that I do it. It would cost me all the favor I enjoy with the people of London, though I would willingly lose that for a smile from you."

She gave the smile, and as he left followed his retiring figure with her eyes and thought, "After all, he has a kind heart."

She breathed a sigh of relief, too, for she felt she had accomplished Brandon's release and still retained her dangerous secret, the divulging of which she feared would harden Henry's heart against her blandishments and strand her upon the throne of France.

"Lightness of a 'Dorothy Dodd'"

On the Scales

A great many interesting facts may be discovered with a pair of scales, but it is doubtful if any single fact will be more interesting and valuable to the average woman than the weight of her shoes.

For this tells her the number of ounces that must be lifted thousands of times each day, and a little calculation will show that she lifts tons of shoe leather a day—no small labor in itself.

The "Dorothy Dodd" shoe saves the lifting of more than one and one-half tons every day. A pair of "Dorothy Dodd" shoes are several ounces lighter than ordinary shoes. The feet are just so much more comfortable, and you are so much less tired. Put a pair to the test!

Theatrical Notes.

"Herrmann the Great," a most popular entertainer of magic and magic phenomena, will appear at The Kentucky Tuesday night. Herrmann's work is different from all other magicians in that he is original, and always presents something new to puzzle, mystify and entertain his audiences. His great specialty is sleight of hand, and in this feature of the entertainment he has received the highest praise from all the great critics of all the leading newspapers and periodicals from all over the world. He has entertained and delighted most all the crowned heads of Europe and the Orient. For his engagement in this city many new and novel experiments in legerdemain and sensational illusions are furnished. Herrmann is accompanied by the musical Lasky's, who vary the offerings of magic with a melange of music played on various instruments. Seats on sale Monday.

In the numbers presented by the R. of P. band at the concert to be given at the Kentucky theater tonight, it has been the aim of the director to display the varied qualities of the band. The first number, a two-step march, is one in which rhythm and dynamic modulations are the principal factors, and the band has already acquired a "Sousian" swing and style that is flattering. The overture, "Orpheus," is one in which the tonality of the band is severely tested, there being the widest range of pianos and fortes, while the colorings are both vivid and beautiful, and tempos ranging from majestic andantes to wild-pretos. In the "Trovatore" selection the passionate Italian melodies are the feature, but the "anvil" chorus and interpolated march movement afford sufficient of the vigor which Anglo-Saxons demand, and there is much rich tone colorings, especially in the prison scene music.

I HAVE on sale today and after a barrel of old Terrell whiskey at the Globe saloon on North Fourth street. The first whiskey ever made in Paducah by a distillery. Everyone invited to call and give this new brand a trial. Sold out of the barrel at 10 cents per drink. J. W. Sherrell.

BASEBALL NEWS.

NEW SUITS TO BE ORDERED—STERLINGS GO TO CAIRO.

Sunday afternoon the I. O. baseball team will play a match game with the Sterling team at the club grounds in rear of the railroad shops and a large crowd will doubtless be out to witness the sport.

The suits for the railroad team will be secured within the next two weeks. Sunday the measurements will be taken of all members of the team and the order sent away immediately. The pants will be gray, with green caps, shirts and stockings.

Tomorrow the Sterling baseball team will go to Cairo to play the Cairo High school team. There are excellent amateur players in both teams and an interesting game is expected.

SCHOOL CENSUS.

THERE WILL BE NO MATERIAL CHANGE, IF ANY.

The school census for 1903 will be completed in a few days. Two of the enumerators, Messrs. J. M. Hart, the veteran enumerator, and Mr. Will Baker, have now finished, and each has an increase over last year.

Mr. Hart finished today and turned his report over to Secretary Sutherland of the board of education. Mr. Hart found a total of 2,690 in the Fifth and Sixth wards, an increase of 141 over last year.

It is reported that in the Third and Fourth wards there has been a decrease, so far, of 132. There will probably be little change in the entire city.

MAKE ROOM—We must for our coffee and tea business. Keep your eye on our ads and your pantry. It's taking place at Bockmon's.

Y. M. C. A. NEWS.

Assistant State Secretary F. J. Michel and local Secretary S. B. Hanna, of the Y. M. C. A., will go to Fulton Sunday afternoon probably to hold a young men's Sunday. This afternoon the baseball park is being rolled and the tennis and roque courts are in good shape and the finest ever built in the city.

STRANGE ACCIDENT.

MARSHALL COUNTY MAN PAIN-FULLY BURNED NEAR BENTON.

Benton, Ky., April 24—Zack Wade, who lives on the Parker place one-half mile east of town, was painfully burned while applying gasoline to his leg, which was afflicted with rheumatism. Although there was but very little fire in the room and he was five or six feet away from it the gasoline caught fire and severely burned his leg from the knee down. His son Claude, who was in the room with him, in attempting to extinguish the fire had his hands burned. He however finally grabbed a coat that was lying on the bed nearby and quickly smothered out the flames which were enveloping his father. Mr. Wade is very painfully injured, but not seriously.

A HOO DOO BAG.

FAILED TO SAVE THIS MAN FROM DEATH.

Marshal Robertson, of Fulton, has presented to Mr. Bud Quarles, the saloonkeeper, a hoo doo bag secured off the body of a negro who was found hung to a tree near Fulton on the 12th of the month. The bag contains the following articles: One burnt ten cent piece; several needles and pins, a bunch of hair, a lodestone, some salt and several other articles. The bag was securely tied and was found hanging around the neck of the negro. Marshal Robertson took the bag to keep as a reminder of the occasion but consented to let Mr. Quarles have it.
